THOUGHT SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unionville, Mo.—"I suffered from a female trouble and I got so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without holding on to something. I had nervous spells and my fingers would cramp and my face would draw, and I could not speak, nor sleep to do any good, had no appetite, and everyone thought I would not live."

Some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and I would try it. By the time I had taken it I felt better. I continued its use, and now I am well and strong.

"I have always recommended your medicine ever since I was so wonderfully benefited by it and I hope this letter will be the means of saving some other poor woman from suffering."—Mrs. MARTHA SEAVEY, Box 1144, Unionville, Missouri.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

GOOD IRISH AND TRUE MEET AT ST. PATRICK'S EVE BANQUET

Ancient Order of Hibernians and Guests Toast Emerald Isle and Its Traditions

St. Patrick and the never-dying spirit of Ireland were toasted and praised last night at a very enjoyable banquet given in the top-floor dining room of the Alexander Young hotel by Division No. 1 Ancient Order of Hibernians. More than half a hundred Irishmen and ladies and their invited guests met around the banquet-board, and in spite of inclement weather, the occasion was marked by much informal fun and jollity and plenty of serious appreciation of the event and the elements that have gone toward the making of Irish character and Irish tradition.

The green of the ould sod was reflected in the decorations of the table. Little green baskets with the traditional harp being given as dinner favors. James J. Sullivan, toastmaster, Rev. Father Valentin and F. D. Creedon, one of the veterans of the A. O. H. in Hawaii, received the guests in the mauka pavilion of the hotel previous to the dinner. Governor Pinkham was an invited guest and after the dinner stood at the head of an informal reception line and met those present. The governor was seated at the left of the toastmaster during the banquet with the Rt. Rev. Bishop Libert on the right.

Much informality marked the program, which was also largely impromptu. The responses to toasts were brief and there were no set speeches. Toasts were drunk to the president and to the governor. Jack Lucas propounding the latter, after a talk in which he praised Governor Pinkham and urged that the people of Hawaii give the executive stanch support.

A letter was received from Brother Dutton of Molokai, conveying his best wishes on the occasion and for the success of the order.

Governor Pinkham, who spoke briefly on the toast, "The President," talked somewhat about national administration affairs, dwelling on the grave problems that confront President Wilson and declaring that all good citizens should help hold up the president's hands and give him stanch backing. He also spoke of Joseph P. Tumulty, the good Irishman who is the president's secretary.

Other talks were made by F. D. Creedon, Dr. James J. Carey, Jack Lucas, Chester Doyle, Father Valentin, H. E. Henderson, Father Maximin, Jack D. Cleary, Dr. J. H. Farrell, Riley H. Allen, John James Armstrong, John D. Drury, with the engineers, Fort Shafter, and Bishop Libert. Con-

F. Dempsey recited a humorous poem entitled "An Irishman's Dream," and Father Valentin sang a song, "My Dear Old Irish Mother" that was heartily cheered. Kaal's orchestra furnished the music for the evening.

One of the features was an earnest talk given by Toastmaster Sullivan in which he emphasized the fact that the A. O. H. stands for spiritual as well as civil strength, usefulness and cooperation.

It might be added that Jack Lucas also gave a St. Patrick's day toast in Hawaiian and Chester Doyle obliged with a rendition of "The Wearing of the Green" sung in Japanese with a Greek accent imported from his usual cafe haunt.

Among those present were: Governor Pinkham, Rt. Rev. Bishop Libert, Father Maximin, Father Valentin, Mrs. E. M. Wood, H. F. Davidson, Miss Estelle Healy, Miss Jane White, Miss Elizabeth McMenamin, Gladys Thomas, W. E. Greene, Amy O'Connor, Samuel F. Chillingworth, Jr., James J. Carey, E. W. Burgess, C. F. Dempsey, Mrs. M. Cleary, Jack D. Cleary, Elizabeth Gosling, Mary Gouvetta, James J. Cashman, Jeremiah O'Sullivan, Mrs. J. O'Sullivan, Alfred J. Thevenin, James Armstrong, Frank G. J. Murray, John F. Bowes, John D. Drury, John Sheehan, Chester A. Doyle, Riley H. Allen, W. C. Bergin, Mrs. J. J. Sullivan, A. T. Henderson, Mrs. E. J. Lord, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Creedon, J. Lucas, Mrs. John Dugan, Mrs. Cerves, Dr. J. F. Farrell, John H. Farrell, Lillian H. Ranien, Clara A. Rhodes, William C. McCov, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Fitzpatrick, J. Macaulay, Mr. and Mrs. J. Maxam and E. M. Wood.

GRAVES OF HAWAIIAN CHIEFS ROBBED IS CHARGE MADE TO POLICE

Vandals are charged with desecrating the final resting places of several early Hawaiian chiefs and nobles, whose remains have for years been held in sacred caves at the upper end of Palolo valley.

The police department today has a list of names of a number of enlisted men and civilians, who are charged with having visited these graves within the past week, rifling the tombs and removing articles of value.

The matter was brought to the attention of Sheriff Jarrett, who has detailed an officer to make an investigation. Testimony adduced from a number of persons residing in the immediate neighborhood implicates several who are to become subjects for a searching investigation. A fine of not less than $100 or imprisonment of

SUPERVISORS ARE GIVING TIME TO WATER PROBLEMS

From now until the water and sewer systems are actually transferred from the territory to the city and county, the board of supervisors will spend a good part of its time in planning for the acquisition.

To bring both systems up to a paying basis, to arrange some scheme for the discharge of the bonded and current indebtednesses of the systems, and also a scale of rates to be charged for the service, are the intentions of the board.

A special committee of the board is studying the problems involved in the transfer. Supervisor Petrie, a member of this committee, has reported that the superintendent of public works has all the figures and general information germane to the transfer, ready, which he will turn over to the board at any time desired. Special meetings of the committee will be held soon to work on this data and outline the ordinances necessary to pass to take the place of the territorial statutes relating to the water and sewer systems which go out of effect with the transfer.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT. BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Make it thick, glossy, wavy, luxuriant and remove dandruff—Real surprise for you.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it, through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually get new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it—advertisement.

If you haven't a phone—

You have to come to town for every little errand — instead of comfortably ringing up the merchant and ordering things delivered.

You have to go perhaps long, tiresome distances to make a call — instead of comfortably ringing up your friend and having a nice, gossipy chat without discomfort to either of you.

You, as a Wife, can't be easily notified if Husband decides to stay in town for dinner. With a phone you may know almost as soon as he does, and perhaps save yourself considerable work and bother.

Husband can't quickly inform you that he has unexpectedly secured good seats for opera, etc. With a phone in the house you could know this fact early enough to get a particular gown perhaps altered, etc., without fuss or hurry.

There are a few reasons why you should have a phone. We can give many other reasons. Ask us about the low cost of being in constant communication with rest of the city.
